Keeping The Pace

Because the use of computers has become so common in the work place, the school offers three computer courses to help prepare students to enter areas of computer science. The printing of schedules and report cards by our main computer, Osciris, is an example of the increasing use of computers within our own school system.

Timing Makes The Difference

When it comes to studying, the biggest problem is finding the time. Although few students will admit that they actually study, those who own up to hitting the books say that timing Makes the Difference.

Studying late at night is a popular idea. Chris Allen refuses to study before 10:30, and Alex Khoury doesn't look at his books before 11:00. Alicia Heidt also likes studying late at night, but prefers studying early in the morning. Lisa Daniell and Edith Parrish study in the car on the way to school (perhaps that explains Edith's driving). Quite a few students agreed with Stacey Brewer and Allison Sparks that homeroom was a perfect time to study. Some of the more serious students actually have a study schedule, but the general consensus is that the best time to study is when you can no longer avoid it.

Sometimes the hardest part of "hitting the books" (as the students pictured above are doing) is getting the books out of your locker.

Making the Grade

Getting help from teachers and doing extra studying on your own are part of what it takes to Make the Grade.

Above: Mr. Heller, an art instructor, along with Jerry Gibson and Scotty Hardison

At least once in your "high school career", you have a perfectly awful day. It might go something like this:

You wake up about 8:05; all of your decent clothes are dirty, and the clothes that are clean desperately need ironing. So, you "borrow" something from your brother. You grab your books, race out to your car, crank that baby up, and proceed to break all of the traffic laws. Just when you think you might get to school on time, you find yourself cruising behind a tractor!

After your "conference" with Mr. Carter, you get to class just in time for a pop test in physics. While running your sixth lap in P.E., your second period class, you realize that you didn't have breakfast. Consequently, you make it your business to be the first person in the lunch line. Then, you realize that you don't have lunch money.

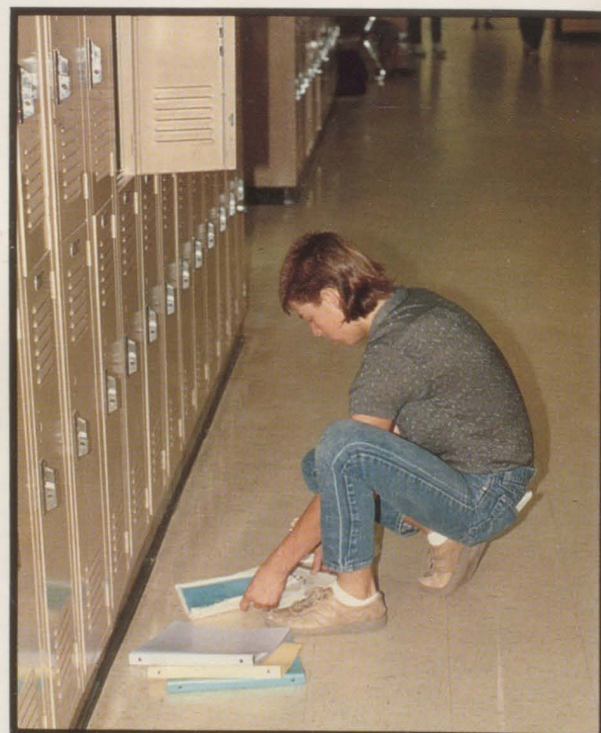

If you have never had a day like this, don't worry, you will! Our best advice is that you take it in stride. After all, it's the way you handle it that Makes the Difference!

Top: When we just can't make it, it becomes necessary to go to the office and check out.

Above: Our Number One Security Guard, Grover Towns, takes time out to relax.

Right: Brian Blando, Barely Making It. When everything imaginable has gone wrong, dropping your books just doesn't seem to make things any better.

Top: As a last resort, Gary Harrison tries to learn by osmosis.

Above: Barely making it onto the bus is a common occurrence for students from Byron. The three o'clock bell signals the start of a mad dash to the bus stop.

Left: "Are you sure that you can make it?" His friends may doubt his ability, but this weight lifter proved to be small but potent.

aking it Happen!

In classes, between classes, and after classes, Trojans are making it happen. We find ourselves taking one last minute to study for a major test, talking with our friends at lunch, and cheering the Trojans on to victory. As the 1988-89 school year ticks by, we all will want to remember the football games, the girlfriends and boyfriends, the good and even the bad times.

So what is "Making It Happen?" It is PCHS students taking the best and the worst and Making the Difference.

Portraits of Excellence

Outstanding Seniors are chosen by teachers from eight different departments. Not only do these students make excellent grades, but they exhibit an understanding of the subject that goes beyond what is in the text. Outstanding seniors bring additional interest and enthusiasm to the classroom; they strive for excellence in "Making the Grade."

We salute the Outstanding Seniors of the Class of '89. We hope you continue your excellence in academics, for this kind of achievement produces leaders of our community, our nation, and our world. Keep on Making the Difference!

Outstanding
Seniors

MUSIC — CHRIS ALLEN plays the trumpet in the Trojan Marching Band. He plans to attend Georgia Southwestern and major in music.

HOME ECONOMICS — REGINA BUCHANAN enjoys sewing, reading, and doing volunteer work. Regina is interested in psychology and plans to attend Macon College.

ENGLISH and SCIENCE — LORI BURTON plans to attend medical school after college. She spends her free time reading and listening to music.

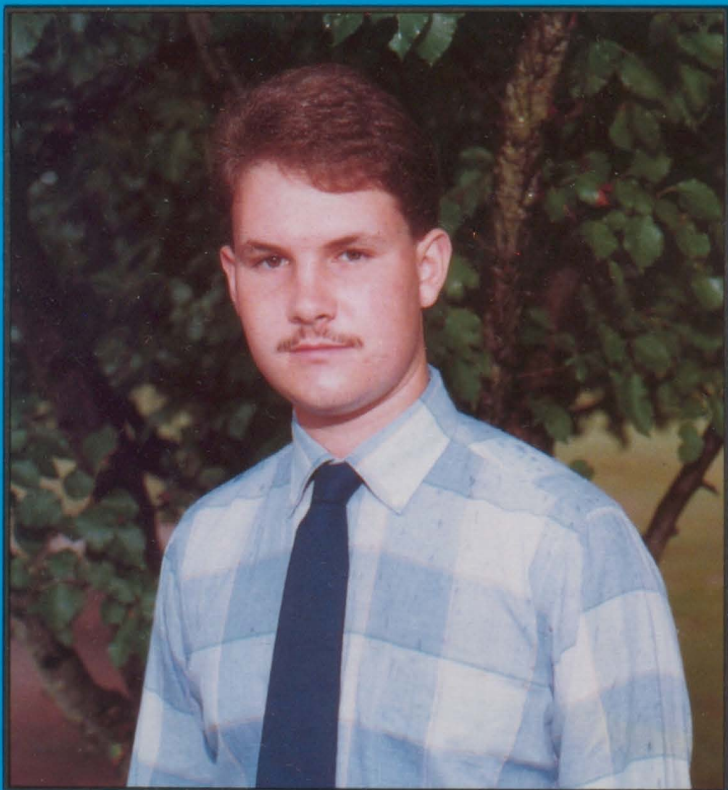

PHYSICAL EDUCATION — JERRY GIRDNER enjoys playing football and basketball and plans to attend college after graduation. He plays tailback and wingback positions on the varsity football team.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE — NATALIE JONES plans to attend Georgia College and major in English. She is a Golden Girl and enjoys singing and playing softball.

MATH — LEE JOYNER enjoys drawing, writing, poetry, swimming, and dancing. Lee hopes to attend Emory University and become an M.D.

SOCIAL STUDIES — SEAN McPHAIL plans to attend Emory University and major in political science. Sean likes reading, listening to music, playing drums, and fishing.

BUSINESS — JENNIFER TAYLOR enjoys playing tennis, reading, traveling, and playing the piano. Jennifer's career goal is to become a corporate lawyer.

Selected
Seniors

The 1988-89 Selected Seniors were chosen by their fellow classmates by popular vote. The selected seniors of the class of '89 are a very diverse group.

Vickie Ages enjoys being with her friends. She plans to attend Albany State College. Amy Bailey wants to attend college and major in psychology. Softball and aerobics are some of her interests. Amy and BJ Brewer both want to enroll in Macon College. BJ enjoys cheerleading and sports and plans to become a dental hygienist. Kysha Brown wants to pursue a career in television broadcasting. She enjoys singing and public speaking and wants to attend the University of Georgia. Wendy Bryan, who is "Mercer bound", enjoys swimming and softball. Sedrick Childs, a future Ga Tech Yellowjacket, likes reading and listening to music. Maurice Draine isn't sure about his college plans. Maurice enjoys playing football and basketball. John Flournoy and Ken Hartley may not be saying goodbye to each other after graduation. Both enjoy playing football, and both want to attend Georgia Southern. Michelle Jones, who enjoys dancing and reading, wants to attend Florida A & M and eventually become a CPA. Natalie Jones likes singing and being with her boyfriend, Jay. She has Georgia College in her future plans. Alex Khoury wants to attend Boston College, then law school. Alex loves playing tennis. James Latimore wants to attend FSU or Howard University and pursue a career in sports. Pam Moncrief would like to become a nurse. Pam enjoys talking on the phone and being with friends. She wants to attend Georgia College. Cedric Oates, who may be UGA bound, would also like to pursue a career in sports. Stephanie Scott wants to attend South Carolina State, then law school. She enjoys dancing and playing basketball. Tangie Shackelford, likes reading and socializing. Tangie wants to become a journalist. Robert Slaybaugh plans to attend the University of Georgia. His interests are cars and sports. Victor Taylor likes drawing, playing piano, and meeting people. He wants to enroll in Howard or Hampton University. Scott Walker enjoys drawing and swimming. Scott plans to enlist in the United States Army.

In The Spotlight

We all act differently when put in the spotlight. Some of us gaze into the camera curiously. A few even hurry and hide. But most of us put on our best smiles and let the film roll.

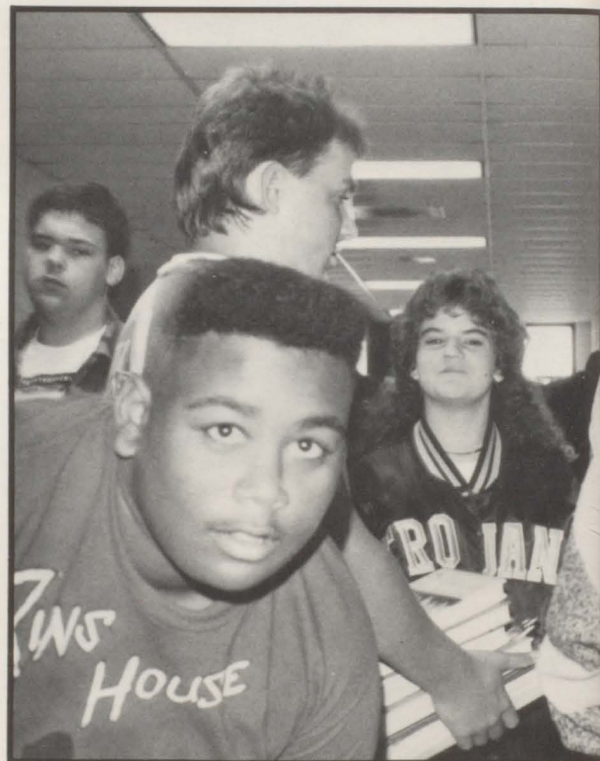

Here at PCHS, students are not very camera shy. In fact, the majority actually have fun putting on "shows" for the photographer.

So, here is your section to all those who called out, "Take our picture, take our picture," from the Retrospect Staff '89.

Top: Chris Khoury, Brian Smisson, and Ben Butler gather friends around to take this shot.

Right: "Let me get in on this one, too," says Ken Greene.

Above: Miss Thomas' second period class is caught in the act of performing Peter and the Wolf. Ken Hartley, portraying Grandpa, is about to take care of the wolf, Jason Smith, who is torturing Kelli Kennedy, Peter! Tonia Smith, the bird, and Jennifer Jones, playing the duck, stand by to see what happens.

Left: Laughing, Leslie Oglesby and Tammy Williams make their way down the walkway.

Top: The lunch line is the perfect place to join in conversation with friends, especially if the line is so long that it stretches into the lobby.

On Those "Not-So-Perfect" Days . . .

We sometimes wish that we could be anywhere except in a classroom. Well, Chris Mitchell decided that the best solution to his problem was to make himself the teacher, while Joseph Hinton chooses to be alone for a few minutes. After a while though, it really helps to put all problems aside and have a little fun!

The buildings are attractive and usually immaculate. The supplies are always adequate. The grounds are efficiently maintained. Though we complain, the food is nutritious and very carefully prepared. The curriculum is excellent; the athletic program is recognized throughout the

GETTING THE

Diversified Cooperative Training

Diversified cooperative training is a cooperative training effort which provides practical on the job work experiences for students to gain employability skills in the trade and industrial occupations. The DCT program at the secondary level is structured and provided under the cooperaive vocational education method of instruction and where possible, is placed according to career objectives. Phillip Moore is observed on the job by Mrs. S. Washington, the DCT coordinator and Mr. Paul Chapman of Fiberglass Industries. Donnie Therrien really gets involved in his project. The members of the DCT classes enjoy gainful employment at several training stations including: Warren Green Oldsmobile/Chevrolet, Aartistik Taxidermy, Piggly Wiggly, McDonald's Hamburgers, Kirby's Touch Beauty and Barber, and Fiberglass Industries.

JOB DONE

Vocational Office Training is a cooperative work-training program for high school juniors and seniors preparing for full-time employment in business occupations. It is, in fact, the "capstone" of the business education program where the knowledges, skills, and techniques learned separately in business classes are brought together and applied to an actual office job. It consists of three parts: classroom instruction, on-the-job training, and leadership training in the Future Business Leaders of America. Some of the job sites where VOT students are currently working are: Peach County Hospital, Middle Georgia Bank — Byron, Middle GA RESA, Blue Bird, Cardinal Manufacturing, Westview Pharmacy, Sammons Enterprises, Herbert's, State Farm Insurance, Valley Insurance, Valley Cable TV, Avera Drugs, Dollar General, Fred's, Dairy Queen — Byron, Kentucky Fried Chicken, and Peach County Board of Education. Each spring, the VOT class holds an Employer Appreciation Activity to express gratitude to those Peach County businesses that have participated in the program. This is the fourth year for VOT at Peach County High School with approximately 110 students having been enrolled. Mrs. S. Pearson is the coordinator of the VOT program.

THE PROJECT

Quite Impressive!

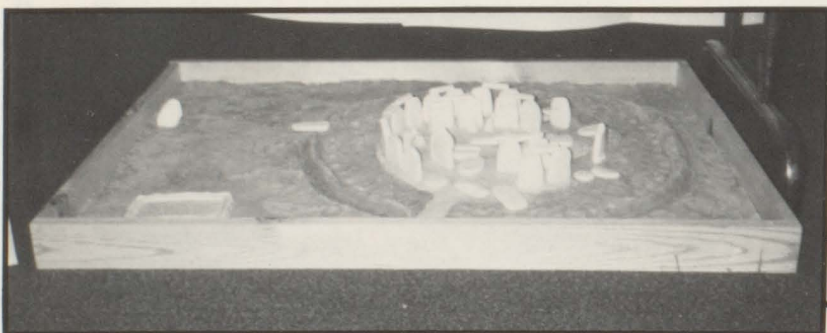

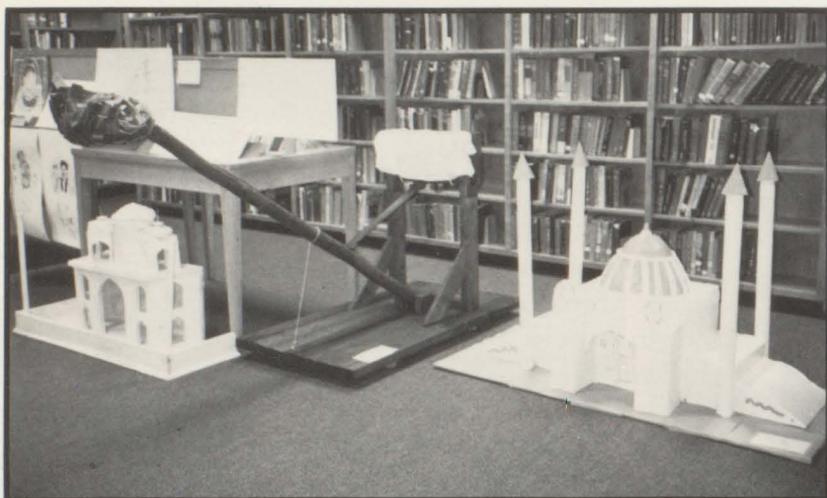

The

PROJECT EVE

Your teacher assigned a project months ago. It is due tomorrow. You have not finished 'creating' yet! So, you find yourself staring at a worktable on which you have placed a small collection of 'putting the final touches on your project' stuff: rusty kindergarten scissors, very thick glue, some posterboard scraps, a few dried out markers, scotch tape that you can not find the beginning of, and other odds and ends. There you have it — the HORROR of PROJECT EVE!

You proceed to make a few changes here and a few additions there; til the job is finally done. And it is all worth the effort because the HORROR of PROJECT EVE turns into the SUCCESS of PROJECT DAY!

The catapult was built by Layne Smith and Derrick Pinney, Joy Tolman and Amy Ward built the model of Hagia

Sophia, and the model of Stone Henge was done by Chris Rader.

T

he World Beyond PCHS

Mrs. Evelyn McCray spent four weeks in France. She accompanied her daughter and grandchildren on a four week tour.

She lived at the University of Dijon in Dijon France, the historical capital of Burgundy. Excursions planned through the University allowed her the opportunity to tour the Medieval Monastery at Cluny, the Famous Romanesque Pilgrim Church at Vezelay and the Medieval walled town of Semur-en-Auxois. In Mrs. McCray's words, "Having a chance to spend a month in France was something I never dreamed I would be able to do."

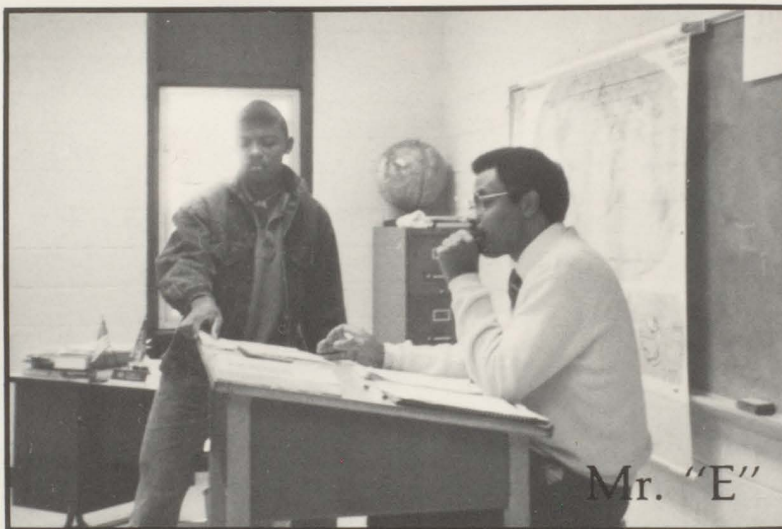

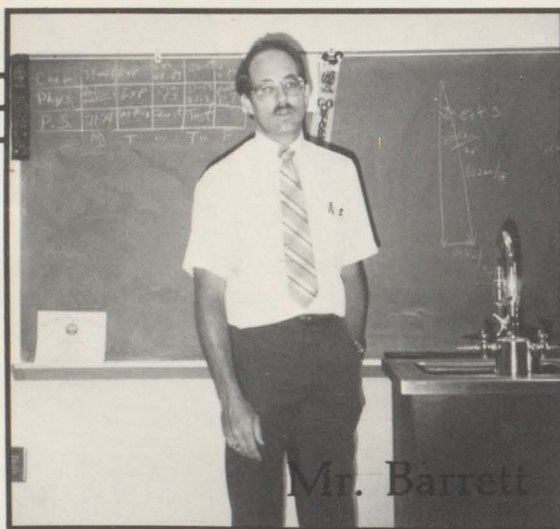

During the summer of 1987, Mrs. Kay Kicklighter was awarded an EARTH-WATCH fellowship to spend two weeks in the Alaskan Wilderness near Fairbanks, Alaska, studying and working with other EARTH-WATCH volunteers and scientists to determine the impact of logging and mining on the taiga forests ecosystems. Working and sleeping in 24 hours of daylight and ever present mosquitoes proved to be an unusual challenge. Hikers always had to make noises and be wary of bears or moose that might attack if suddenly surprised. According to Mrs. Kicklighter, "All the hardships were overshadowed by the beautiful scenery and interesting people that I met."

Sean McPhail Claims Star Student Honor

Mr. T. Orr — Star Teacher

The Star Student had to achieve the highest score on the Scholastic Aptitude Test in the Senior Class. Sean McPhail did just that! He chose Mr. Orr as his Star Teacher for contributing most to his academic achievements. In Sean's words, "Mr. Orr has always taught that it is not as important to fill your head with useless facts as it is to fully understand what you learn."

Mr. Orr had this to say: "Sean is a superb student in English, but his grasp of history is nothing short of extraordinary. In this age of high technology and the emphasis placed on it, it is refreshing to find a student who prefers a liberal arts education along time-honored lines. Sean is a thinker, and that most assuredly places him among a select few in America these days."

Last Will And Testament

I, VICKIE SOPHIA AGES, being of sound mind and body leave to Keecha Forehand my total thanks and gratitude for showing me the true meaning of the word "friend." I leave to Tangie Shackelford my 20/20 vision. To Hope Hill I leave my ability to fall in love without gaining any grey hairs of worry. To Yolanda, Sonya, Karon, Erica and Anna I leave my years of good times and tripping. I leave to Kaboo, Tyrone and Day-Day a year's supply of "Ports." To my brother Jabar I leave my ability to come to school "able" and to drive Derrick's Camero without hitting anything. And to my love Derrick, I take with me all the joy and happiness you've brought to my life. To Peach County High I proudly leave my absence!

I, RHONDA ALLEN, bequeath to Akiva an everlasting friendship. To Sammie I leave good times. To TQM I leave Doc's. To the Lady Trojans I leave Natalie and Rhonda as leaders. To Terrell I leave the ability to trip and party. Melissa and LaTonya I leave trouble. I leave Trent Allen my love. And CR nothing. Bridgette Jones I leave a smile.

I, PAMELA MICHELE ASKINS, being of sound mind and body leave my cousins Melody and Tammie Towns my gorgeous smile, and the ability to expand their abilities toward their school work as much as they do boys. I take with me my crazy flag drills and my friendship with Fabienne and Andrea, may it last forever.

I, LAURA BACHMAN, the omniscient one, present my last wishes. To Endya B. and Cedric R. I leave the "Black Mule" (If you wanna ride . . .) To James L. I leave a conversation for him to butt into. I dedicate sixth period whiplash to Endya B. and Melinda T. Thanks for the "Grape Ape" and "Gumby" memories, Regina B. Most of all I thank Jennifer T. for being a friend. Lastly I leave the underclassmen all the teachers that drove me crazy. May all of you get Mr. McInnis for World History!

I, TROY BANNISTER, being a "REBEL WITHOUT A PAUSE" leave to everyone at PCH a map in hopes that you will "FOLLOW THE LEADER" you ALL should know that WE ARE THE CLASS OF 89, WE ARE #1, it takes a "NATION OF MILLIONS TO HOLD US BACK" cause "MIUZI WEIGHS A TON"!! 89 in e-ff-ect boyyyyee!

I, AMY BAILEY, being of confused mind and big heart, do hereby leave to my three brothers, Jeffery, Chuckie, and Jay, the ability to party as much as possible without getting caught. To Layne and Jill, I leave you the fun times together. Don't fuss! To Matt and Jason, I leave you unwillingly behind, with hopes that you'll make it through your Senior year and Thanks for all the laughs. To Tami Shealy and Kelli Kennedy, I leave my devotion to GG practice and to Hope B., a good pair of shoe strings. I leave Jenni Mac the strength and courage to put up with Chuck. To Natalie, thanks for the fun times and the "Biology Talks" even when we weren't in Biology. To my 4th and 6th period classes all the gossip their ears can handle. To Laura Anne, I leave all the thanks and love for always being there! I love ya! To Eric and Keith, the ability to sit at lunch without telling secrets. Thanks for the certs! To Alicia, I leave with you and hope someday we can relive the "Good Ole Days." To Tiffany, I leave my undying friendship. I love ya and always will! Last but not least, to the finest freshman in PCHS, Scotty Walton, I leave my love and friendship, may they live forever, and never change! And to YOU I'll cherish the memories and love, for always!!!

I, ROBB BATCHELOR, being of the utmost professionalism hereby bequeath to Cutbush my unique ability to be on time to all of Mrs. Washington's functions and 1 more year of her elegant yet professional attitude. To Chris Hodge, my "big brother" I leave my thanks for being a great listener and some money for his phone bill, to my parents I leave my appreciation for all of their love and support. Last, but not least, I leave to Darrell Lettice my heart, all of my love, and my thanks for the many wonderful times and memories that he has given me.

I, REGINA BUCHANAN, being of sincere heart, intelligent mind, and barely making it body, leave my two dogs to Fabrienne, because she loves them so much; To Shannon Gassett the ability to give and receive all the happiness she can; to Rich the ability to pick the appropriate time to bother me, to Endya the ability to keep your hands on the wheel; to Sean thank you for the interesting name; to Shannon and Horace — Sweet Dreams! to Wendy, thanks you for your help m... well, you know! to Londa, I leave my understanding; to Erick, I leave my patience; to Jason R — It's Dr. Buchanan, thank you!; to Jason P, I leave my great memory, you always seem to forget certain little things. To my two best friends in el mundo, Ladonna and Suzanne, I will always treasure our friendship. Ladonna, always start with one when counting. To all the underclassmen, I leave you this wonderful school that has so many people that mind their own business.

I, KEITH BURNETT, being of so-so mind and not so great body, leave to Jenafa — trips to the corner, Pepsis, burps, closets, trips to Perry to bless "folks" out, lots of garlic on those breadsticks, a handbook about 12 year olds, and thanks for always listening to me carry on — oh yeah — where's my dollar for the bet on the beau? Robin, Celeste, Michelle, Lucy, Kysha, Danielle, Val, AND Daphne — thanks for letting me be "one of ya'll." Chad — next time you're in Warner Robins, go by True Value Hardware. Ben and Matt Hoots — Bunny's girl says "Bye". Sheftall — 890 bud! Liz, Ali, Tracey — let's have a GREAT summer. Kollyn — I'm gonna leave you a social calendar, okay? Layne — I'm sorry for everything — I love you to death. I think the Retrospect Staff deserves a standing ovation for pulling this one off! Jack, I love you so much, no matter what, please, don't ever forget that! Candie, Dex, AND Daphne — "Dial my Heart!" — like a foghorn. Jay — thank you for walking me to 6th period, I don't care what they say! Okay — Jen, Lori, Lee, Kysha, Lucy, Michelle, John, Ken, Scott, Kristi, Laura Anne, Amy, Aaron, Robert, Sid, Angela, and all other Seniors — Let's plow!!!

I, SHERI BURROWS, leave to Brian, Jason, and Kenny my extensive knowledge of math, may they know how to add by graduation. To Patrick I leave my heart (it's not a broken one) To Stephanie and Anna I leave my interesting cooking skills. Also, I leave them the following at their request: my expensive jewelry, my long blond hair, my car and all of my money. To Chris, a special friend who could always make me smile when all hope was lost, I leave him nothing, because to me he already has everything. To Jason W. all those midnight masquerades just before quitting time. To Chris B. I leave my ability to think fast and get out of those situations when he has done it again. Mom and Dad — Thanks for your support through the years. And to Dennis H. — my Love always.

I, BARBARA ENGLISH, being of scrambled mind and fatigued body, leave to Dawn Medley the wishes of having the best Senior year possible. To Chris Hodges, I leave the patience to get along without me for two more years, a haircut, and a pair of socks. As for Scott Hodges, I leave PCHS with him hoping that our friendship will last a lifetime. As for me, I leave PCHS with the hope that I will be able to survive in this crazy world.

I, SID EUBANKS, being of strong mind and weak body do hereby bequeath to Ernest Harris a box of Snickers bars, so he won't get mine. I leave to Miss Thomas a quartet and ensemble that won't mess around like we did. I leave to Suzanne, Nikki, Sherri, and Heather a new way home, that goes for you also Clint. And I leave, to anyone who is stupid enough to open it, my locker. But finally I leave to Miss Bell a homeroom to win the Senior game trophy back. Oh yeah I almost forgot, to Paige & Shelly I leave a room full of paper and enough candy to last for a year, and to Tonya M. I leave $5.00 a week to you for lunch money.

I, ANGELA FELTON, with a sound mind and well fit body do hereby leave my love to my family. I leave Aldo, Thad and Derrick a pack of Squares. I leave Mario a word of advice; Don't let your females take control of you. I give Keith the ability to learn how to handle his relationship. To Tony and Robert who enjoy rappin to the females. I especially leave them a box of tic tac's. I give Lamar the ability to make it out of high school. Last but not least, I met three crazy guys and I really enjoyed tripping with in 4th period. I got to leave them something or I just won't feel right. So fellows [Scott, Grip, and Jacques] If you walk in a dark room what will you see? ... Nothing! That's what I'm leaving you.

I, FABRIENNE HAMMOCK, will the following: My locker and male troubles to Kristi Brewton. My friendship to Charles French. My 12-F seat to Shannon Baker and Vanessa Coleman. My lunch tickets to Cliff Howard. My beautiful handwriting to Pamela Askins, Andrea Johnson, Yolonda Dennis, and Karon Davis. My "ugly" blue jacket to Amy Troutman. My "clean" bedroom to Regina Buchanan. And my ability to drive to Hope Hill.

I, ANGEL MICHELLE HARRIS, being of pressured mind and able body leave to my family and friends courage to get along without me; to Janet my never ending friendship; to Neal all my love; and to all my friends I didn't mention good times to come. To class of 89 good luck.

I, DERRICK LAMAR HARRIS, being of sound mind and body leave all the girls the ability to go on without me. I leave all the fellows the ability to get with it. I leave Angela Felton and Quasi Howell to my cuz. I leave Kim and Yolonda my brotherly Love. I leave my family all my love especially my Mom & Dad. And to All the Girls that like me "Thanks for nothing."

I, KEN HARTLEY, being of sound mind and body leave to John, Scott, Jason and Mike all the camping trips they can handle. I also leave to Jason Tucker the best side of the Offensive line and to Scott Hodges I leave you $3.00. To everybody else I'm out of here.

I, PAIGE HAYES, leave to Charles, 2 great years at PCHS, to Chris, 4 years and to both, all the love that a sister can have for two special brothers. To Shelly, thanks for the memories and being my best friend. Audra, for the trip to Rose Hill — see both of you at the Abby. To Ron Pyle and Jeffery Peterson, someone to walk to lunch with — I'll miss ya'll. To Terence David, a job with someone who'll appreciate the broom closet. TROJAN

WEEK

Summing It Up!

Trojan Week generates more enthusiasm than any other time of the year at P.C.H.S. Senior homerooms compete against each other for the coveted plaque which holds the names of previous winners. This year's winners were the spirited seniors in 12-I, Mr. Orr's homeroom. Some events were cancelled because of an unexpected episode with a "flying water balloon." Although seniors won the spirit ribbon, activities are not limited to seniors only. The juniors edged out the other classes in the float competition. Competition was close in the

Mr. and Miss Crisp Co. Contest. Angela Felton and Derrick Harris walked away with first prizes, respectively. Mrs. Duke's homeroom, 12-F, had the best door designed to put down the Cougars and Mrs. Kicklighter's homeroom, 11-C, created the best helmet. The crowning of Stephanie Scott as Miss Trojanette highlighted the halftime activities.

Many battles were won, but we lost the final war. By the end of the night, the Trojans had tasted bitter defeat at the hands of the more powerful Cougars. Trojans are still Making the Difference.

CHEER- ing To Victory

Students from all grades compete for a position on the PCHS cheering squad. Those lucky ones who made the squad put in many, many hours learning cheers and perfecting stunts to keep the spirit alive and the crowds pleased at all sports events. Each year our team receives public recognition at Cheer-ing Camp. Congratulations, cheerleaders, and keep that winning spirit, for you are truly Making the Difference.

Junior Classical League

The Junior Classical League, commonly called the Latin Club, promotes the study of classical civilization in the modern world. The PCHS chapter was founded in 1986.

It has been estimated that the typical student taking Latin can add an average of 500-1000 English words to his vocabulary every year. Students studying Latin have also been found to score an average of 20 points higher on the SAT and other standardized tests than those studying German, Spanish, or French.

Arrive Alive

The primary purpose of Arrive Alive is to educate young people of the dangers of drinking and driving. Community support and involvement are important to Arrive Alive. Some Arrive Alive projects emphasize the community while others are "in school" projects.

Once again, Arrive Alive undertook its "Tie One On" campaign during the Christmas season. Red ribbons were tied on cars at school and in the community to increase awareness that the holidays are a time of increased alcoholic beverage consumption. Other activities include projects which focus on Prom and Graduation nights.

National Honor Society

A chapter of the National Honor Society, which is the oldest scholastic honor society in the country, was organized at PCHS during the spring of 1987. In order to be a member of the National Honor Society, a student must have a 95 average in all academic courses, be active in community endeavors, participate in extracurricular activities, and be of high moral integrity.

The faculty advisor is Mr. Orr, and the membership committee consists of Miss Bell, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Duke, Mr. Orr, and Mr. Spearman.

BETA Club

The National Beta Club is a non-secret, non-profit, leadership service club for high school students. Local organizations are subject to regulation and supervision by the administration of the high school where the chapter is located. The Beta Club co-sponsors the Annual Honors Program.

Mrs. C.J. Marshall has been the Beta Club advisor for 19 years at PCHS.

4-H

The local 4-H organization provides many opportunities for its members to pledge their Heads to clear thinking, their Hearts to greater loyalty, their Hands to larger service and their Health to better living. Members work with others, attend conventions, rallies and summer and weekend camp. Wholesome activities not only challenge members, but they also entertain. We salute the 4-H members and encourage them to continue Making The Difference.

Quiz Bowl

In order to be selected for Quiz Bowl, a student must make an exemplary score on a comprehensive examination emphasizing all academic areas, as well as current events. Peach County teams have participated in competitions at various high schools and on college campuses in the Middle Georgia area. Members of the 1988-89 Quiz Bowl team are: Chris Dorsey, Woody Hill, Sedrick Childs, Sean McPhail, and Chris Radar, and the advisor is Mrs. Duke.

Science Bowl

Science Bowl Team members participate in many varied science competitions across the state.

The Georgia Junior Academy of Science sponsors these competitions to foster and motivate students who are academically superior in various fields of science.

The competitions generally include objective tests taken either individually or as a group. Team members must also compete in oral head-to-head examinations against other teams. Questions asked to the students range from simple to complex in all areas of science including Astronomy, Geology, Biology, Chemistry, and Physics.

Mrs. Kay Kicklighter and Mrs. Gaynelle Clark are our Science Bowl advisors. Team members are: Cabel Dupree, Tracy Penson, Edith Parrish, Jeffrey Warren, Chris Allen, Clay Bowden, Kerry Garrett, Sedrick Childs, Woody Hill, Bradley Carthon, and Michelle McRae.

VICA

VICA stands for the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America. Students who join VICA are enrolled in one of several courses: Transportation, Construction, Electronics, Metalworking, Food Service, or Electro-Mech.

The purpose of VICA is to bring out leadership qualities in its members. VICA members are enrolled in classes where they can learn skills which help them become more competitive in the job market.

Mrs. Washington is the VICA advisor.

Celebrating Another Year Of Success

If this final product is deemed a success, you should share in the praise. Again this year, the Retrospect Staff and advisor received the full cooperation of the administrators, faculty, staff and student body. Our job was made easier because you supported our projects and respected our deadlines. The English teachers, as expected, went the extra mile.

The Retrospect Staff — Can I ever say enough? Lee, our editor, and Kysha, our co-editor, provided unparalleled leadership. They are so gifted — so talented in this area. Some day we'll probably have our yearbook published by Joyner and Brown Publishing Co.

Special recognition should also go to Michelle Jones who directed the very difficult ad section. Keith Burnette accounted for all funds. Allan Hallman was tops in ad sales — again. Because of Allan's dedicated work, we were able to buy more color pages. The entire staff worked together so cooperatively. They brainstormed, discussed, ate, disagreed, ate, and then decided on what best represented the total student body. Each staffer, in his own way, contributed to the final product. I wish each of you the best that life has to offer; I'll miss you.

These last two years as advisor to the Retrospect Staff have been the most challenging of my career. It is with mixed emotions that I relinquish this responsibility. My sincere hope is that my successor will enjoy the same spirit of cooperation that has been afforded me.

It is impossible to call the names of all persons who have assisted me. I must, however, say thanks to my husband Curtis who was so understanding; to my principal Mr. Spearman who was so supportive and to the parents of the Retrospect Staff who were so cooperative. You all helped to MAKE THE DIFFERENCE.

Sometimes it seems quite unimaginable that the 1988-89 school year has finally arrived and will be but one piece to the puzzle of life. As I compile the remnants of memories of this year and of the past, I recall many wonderful moments, but few less than perfect ones.

As a second year editor, I feel this position has unmistakably been one of reward. To have the chance to capture the Trojan pride and record it in this book has been my pleasure.

I want to give a special thanks to Mrs. Ernestine Johnson, the yearbook advisor. Without her unceasing devotion to the book and the staff, we could not have made it. I personally want to thank you for the opportunity which you provided the staff and me to produce such an outstanding work as this. I am forever grateful.

Finally, I wish the class of '89 farewell, as we venture into the world of adulthood. May we all keep on Making the Difference in the years to come.

*Wishing you all the best -

This book is our collection of fallen leaves and petals, special memories, victories, defeats, successes, failures, and all those things which fall somewhere in the middle. I hope that when you open your annual years from now, you will find it helpful in recalling people, places, events, and all of those little things which tend to be forgotten as time goes by.

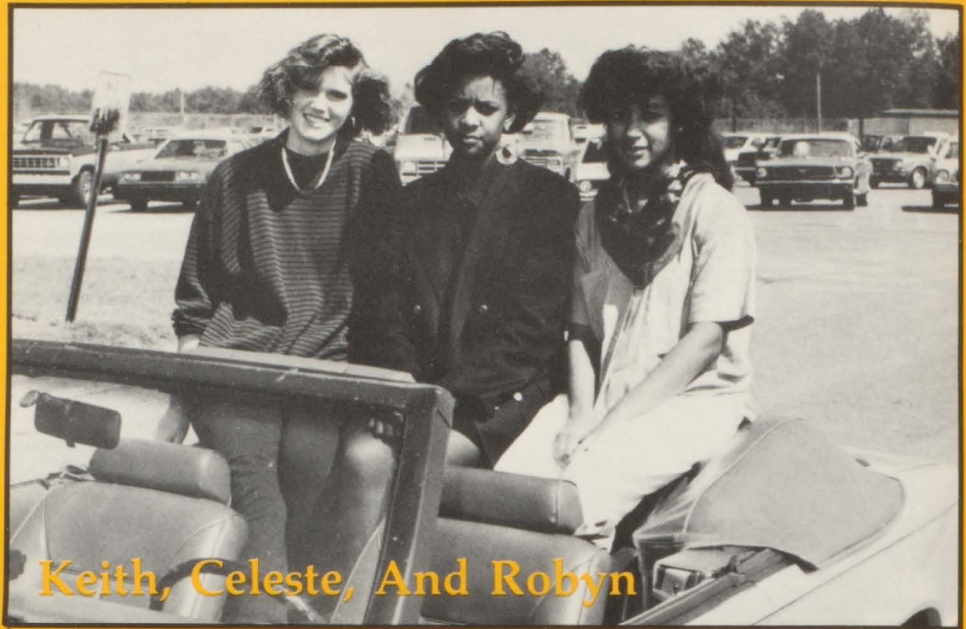

*Wishing you all the best -

Excellence Beyond The Classroom

The past four summers, John Flourney has attended basketball camp. In the two years that he has participated in the Five Star Basketball Camp, located in Pittsburgh, his team won the league championship and went on to play in an all-star game at Metro Index Camp.

Donna Black took classes at Howard University, Washington, D.C., during the Summer Acturial Program. The classes were mathematically based in such areas as statistics and computer programming. Donna also participated in numerous extra-curricular activities.

Matt Perry participated in a football camp at UGA from July 21-24. Matt said he learned more about football basics and was given a chance to compete with other athletes. In Matt's age group, he was awarded the title of Most Outstanding Camper.

Edith Parrish

Michelle Jones attended the National Science Foundation Young Scholar's Program at Fort Valley State College from June 12-August 5, 1988. Michelle received an $800 stipend as well as a certificate of participation and a jacket.

Donald McGhee worked at Six Flags in Atlanta, Georgia in the months of June and July. He served as a cashier in several of the stores such as GA Souvenirs and Bear Necessities. "Skip" says it was a job of reward.

Edith Parrish attended the space academy in Huntsville, Alabama from September 2-11, 1988. Edith is interested in entering the field of astronautical engineering. Space camp, a very influential factor of her life, gave Edith insight in more than space.

Stephanie Scott was a contestant in the 1988 Georgia Miss T.E.E.N. Pageant which took place in Gainesville on August 19 and 20. Stephanie was awarded a $500 savings bond and certificate.

Lee Joyner attended the 1988 Governor's Honors Program in Valdosta, Georgia from June 19-July 31 in the area of mathematics. The six weeks program gave Lee the opportunity to meet people from all over the state and to further her interests in math and many other areas.

Kysha Brown, during the 1988 Washington Youth Tour, met with senators and other congressmen, toured D.C., and saw "CATS" at the National Theater. Between June 12 and June 17, Kysha participated in many activities, but she especially enjoyed the boatripe on the Potomac.

Drum Majors

A Trojan Explosion

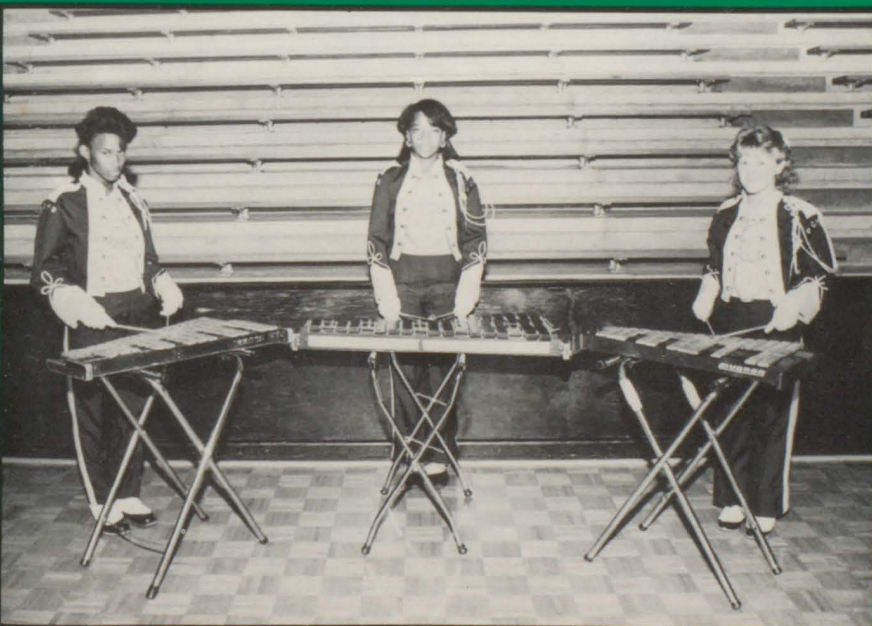

The band's presence was felt at football games long before halftime. If you were in the stadium a few minutes before the kickoff, you would first hear faint sounds of a drum cadence steadily moving closer and getting louder with every beat. Then you would spot the field commander and drum major followed by the twenty-one member percussion section. The line would continue until all one hundred ninety-eight members had marched into the stadium. The band would play "Victory March" as the Trojan football team stormed onto the field. Everyone would know from that point on that the Trojan Marching Band was here to Cheer! Not only did band members support the team by joining in with the cheerleaders, but they came up with chants of their own, which were often led by the drumline or brass section. The action in the stands as well as that on the field made the '88 football season A TROJAN EXPLOSION!

Golden Girls

When the drill team officers attended camp last summer they were determined to do whatever it took to earn superior ratings. By the week's end they had endured about twenty-six hours of dancing outside in extremely hot weather. When the officers and their aching bodies made the last commute home, they had more than reached their goal. Because of the superior performance of the Golden Girls officers at summer camp, an invitation was extended to the entire team to perform during the half-time show of the Gator Bowl. This is a perfect example of how hard work Makes the Difference!

Republicans Declare It A BUSHover!

The 1988 presidential election was an overwhelming Republican victory. While the percentage of popular votes won by republican candidate, Vice President George Bush, was slightly greater than 50%, the ratio of electoral votes was 3:1 in favor of Bush.

The Democratic candidate, Governor Michael Dukakis, found himself competing not so much against Bush, but against the policies of President Ronald Reagan. This was due to the fact that America had fallen in love with the illusions of prosperity that Reaganomics produced.

For this same reason, Bush campaigned as the man who could and would maintain this prosperity for America. Bush, a very wealthy businessman outside of the political scene, convinced voters that he was an average American and that he was on their side. At the same time, Bush attacked Dukakis for his failed furlow program, lack of effort to clean the Boston Harbor, lack of experience in foreign policy, and his weak stand on issues of defense. Bush also tagged Dukakis as an unpatriotic liberal.

Dukakis chose not to respond to the attacks by Bush until the final days of the campaign. His response, however, was too little too late, and the Governor who promised to do for America what he had done for Massachusetts never got his chance.

Now that the election is over, many questions have surfaced as to how successful a Bush administration will be. Can he cut the deficit? Will he break his promise not to raise taxes? Can he bail out the U.S. savings institutions? What will he do to fight the war against drugs? What part will he play in the search for a cure for AIDS? The questions go on and on, but only time will tell if Gipper Jr. is really on the side of the average American.

Because of lessened tensions between the United States and the Soviet Union, more attention will be focused on problems at home. While the Republicans won the presidential election, they are up against a Democratic majority in the Senate and the House of Representatives. The big question is, "Is this Republican victory also a victory for America?"

The 1989 Retrospect is dedicated to Mrs. Ernestine Johnson. Mrs. Johnson has taught English at PCH for many years and has been the yearbook advisor since 1987. We, the 1988-89 Retrospect staff members, truly appreciate the many lessons she has taught us. Mrs. Johnson was our teacher, our friend, and in some cases our confidante. We love you Mrs. Johnson, and we will really miss working with you. You are a true teacher.

Lunchtime

Right: Kim Brown sits back and relaxes until her fifth period class starts at 1:00.

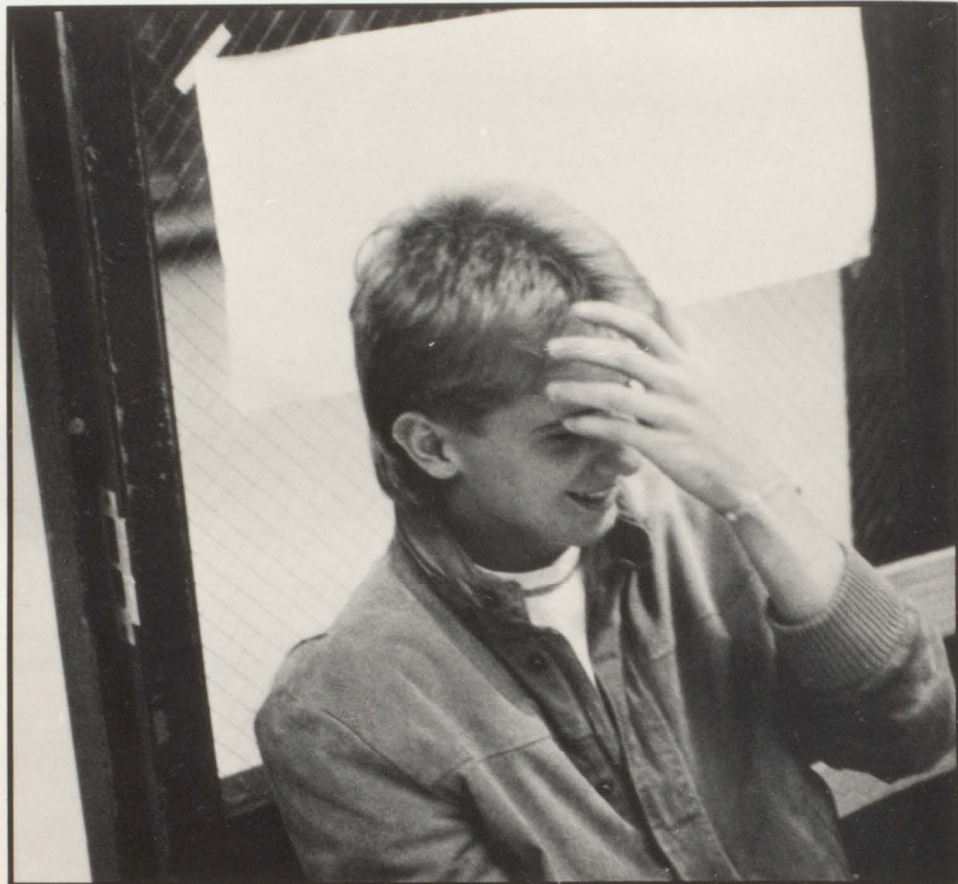

Loitering

Did you ever wonder why there are so many students on the outside during lunch? Does ANYTHING on this page give you a hint? Activities during lunch range from guys standing and watching the latest fads in mini skirts, to engaging in conversations about the latest gossip, to getting the answers to the fifth period test. It is all in a day of LUNCHTIME LOITERING at PCHS.

Out and About

Because the students and administrators are so "IN", they are always "OUT and ABOUT." It takes all kinds of situations to make the day at PCHS: trying to avoid having pictures taken; dressing in togas for Latin Club initiation; viewing a film in the Army van; going to the office to check out; talking with the principal and having a little fun before class.

The END Of A Decade

Making The Difference

As the 80's come to a close, we are looking ahead to the decade of the 90's and to the dawning of a new century. We ask for your continued prayers and support. We promise to make you proud. We are going to earn our places in education, business and industry, and the military. Your future will be secure with us. We will Make the Difference.

The future has much in store for you, among which is "Shibumi". Shibumi is understanding rather than knowledge; it is eloquent silence. In philosophy, it is spiritual tranquility that is not passive. And in personality of man, it is authority without domination. One does not achieve it, one discovers it. One must pass through knowledge and arrive at simplicity.

If you can dress to make yourself attractive
 Yet not make puffs and curls your chief delight;
 If you can swim and row, be strong and active,
 But of the gentler graces lose not sight;
 If you can dance without a craze for dancing,
 Play without giving play too strong a hold,
 Enjoy the love of friends without romancing,
 Care for the weak, the friendless and the old;
 If you can master French and Greek and Latin,
 And not acquire, as well, a priggish mien,
 If you can feel the touch of silk and satin
 Without despising calico and jean;
 If you can ply a saw and use a hammer,
 Can do a man's work when the need occurs,
 Can sing when asked, without excuse or stammer,
 Can rise above unfriendly snubs and slurs;
 If you can make good bread as well as fudges,
 Can sew with skill and have an eye for dust,
 If you can be a friend and hold no grudges
 A girl whom all will love because they must;
 If sometime you should meet and love another
 And make a home with faith and peace enshrined,
 And you its soul — a loyal wife and mother —
 You'll work out pretty nearly to my mind
 The plan that's been developed through the ages,
 And win the best that life can have in store
 You'll be, my girl, the model for the sages —
 A woman whom the world will bow before.

Congratulations Michelle

Michelle,

The challenge is thrilling. Much has been done, but more remains untouched. Every possible resource must be utilized to accomplish your goal. Stay with it!

We Love You Always,
Your Parents

Congratulations!

We are very proud you are now a high school graduate. Through the years we have watched with pride as you grew up. We have always been glad when you succeeded in some project. Now you are about to face the greatest project of all, life on your own. If you will indulge an old friend I would like to give you a bit of advice.

If you want to be rich ... GIVE!

If you want to be poor ... GRASP!

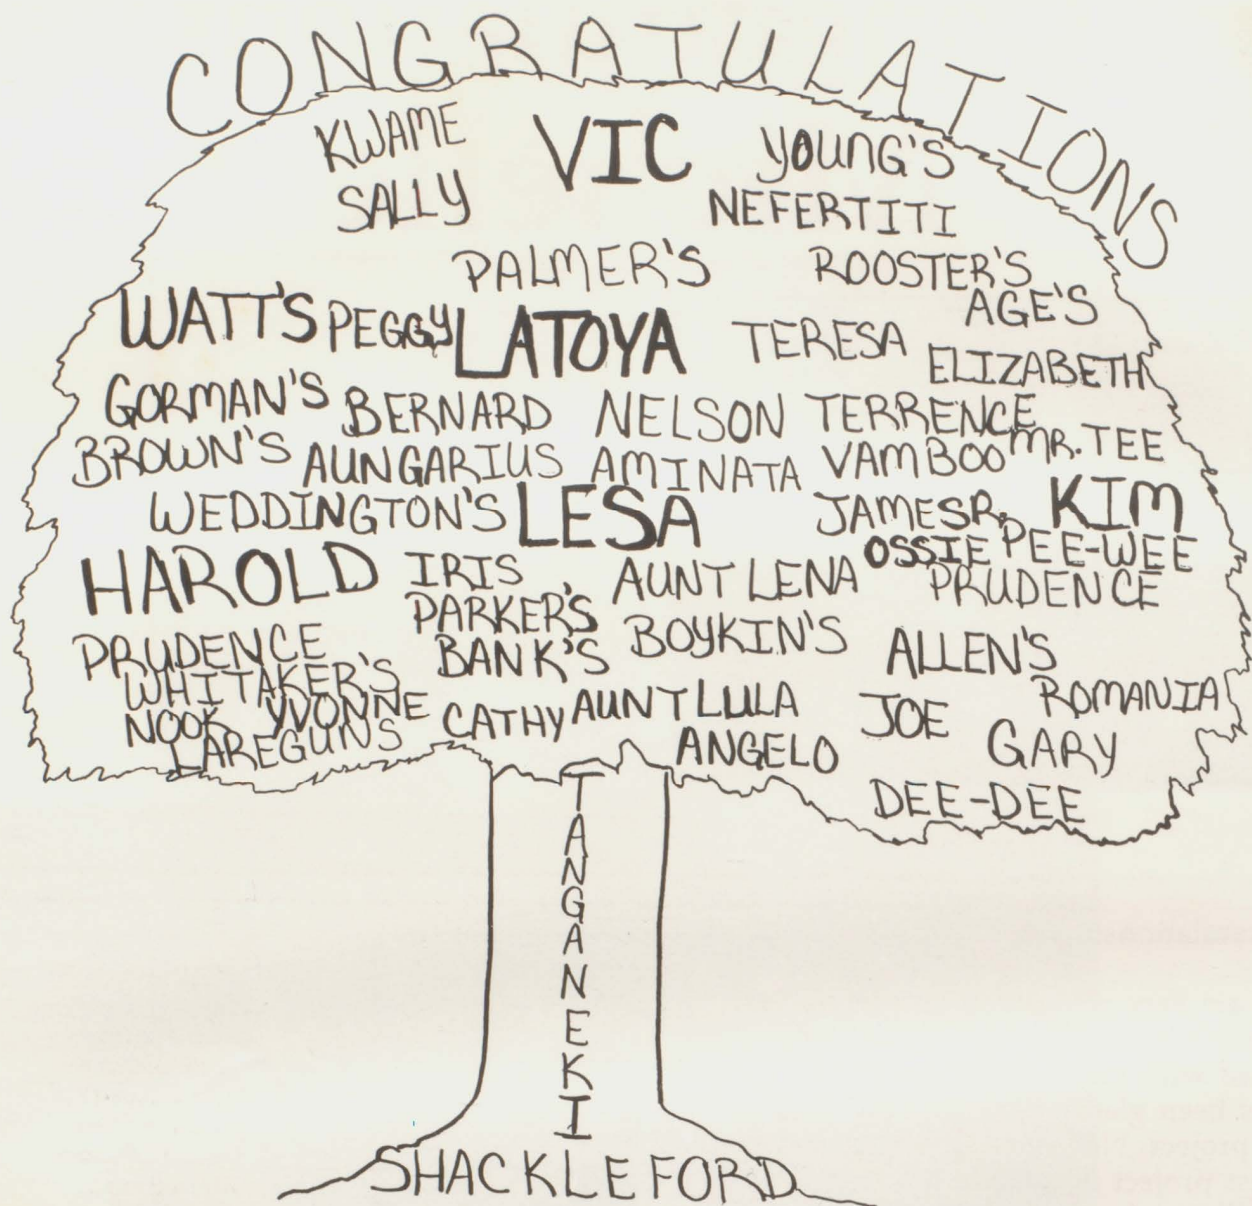

*If you want to be needy ...
HOARD!*

*If you want abundance ...
SCATTER!*

WE LOVE YOU

Tangie

We hope and pray that you will reach your goal. We love you.
Brother and Sister Bananna Split and Family

To our niece, Tangie, You are the sweetest girl we have ever known. We love you.
Uncle Alfred, Aunt Martha, and Debbie

TO OUR GRANDDAUGHTER
Tangie

You are a special Granddaughter
In a great loving way
We think about your welfare
Each and every day.

Tangie you are so beautiful
You mean more to us than words can tell
Your happiness is the main issue
We hope that you are doing well

Now days you can be, what you want to be
Lawyers, Teachers, Journalists and President too Set your goals on one of these
And ask God to direct you on what to do

What ever step you take, you will always have our blessing
We Love you
Grandmama and Granddaddy

To our niece, Tanganeki, You are beautiful and the happiest young lady we have ever known. We love you.
Aunt Ruby Kate, Aunt Majorie, and Uncle Tom

Congratulations,
To my dearest daughter Tanganeki. I wish you the best in all your endeavors. I am

- to MTH for being the very best and special friend

Congratulations Pam

May the good Lord be with you down every road you roam. And may sunshine and happiness surround you when you're far from home.

And may you grow to be proud, dignified, and true.

And do unto others as you'd have done to you.
Be courageous and be brave.

And in our hearts you'll always stay — Forever
Young

May good fortune be with you.

May your guiding light be strong.

Build a stairway to heaven with a prince or a vagabond.

And may you never love in vain.

And in our hearts you will remain — Forever
Young

And when you finally fly away, we'll be hoping that we've served you well.

For all the wisdom of a lifetime, no one can ever tell.

But whatever road you choose, we're right behind you win or lose — Forever Young

He Made It!

Leslie Oglesby

Watching high school seniors make that final walk back up the aisle brings to mind the children's story of how a baby bird reaches maturity —

From birth, the mother birds do everything for their babies, providing food, warmth and shelter. The moment of maturity comes suddenly. The mother bird senses that it is time, and shoves her baby from the nest. Thrust into the Adult world, the young bird flies . . . and becomes an adult.

Until this moment, we have been like the mother bird, providing all the necessities to sustain you. But unlike the mother bird who relies on her baby's natural instincts, we have tried to prepare you for this moment. Every lecture, every counsel, every helping hand has been given to make you ready to fly on your own.

When you walk back up the aisle clutching that diploma, it is time to be thrust from the nest. You must rely on your own wings now.

You now fly on your own. Your inner strength must carry you, into a world that owes you nothing until you earn it.

Fly majestically ahead. Be strong and soar above the crowd. Make your own way . . . and continue to make us as proud of our handiwork as we are now, watching the little girl we once knew stand before the world as a young woman.

We Love You,
And the Best of Luck
Your Family

Seems like almost everybody wants to come to MERCER.

LOCAL RESIDENTS get a whopping 35% savings! High school graduates from Bibb, Houston, Jones, Twiggs, Peach, Crawford and Monroe counties automatically qualify for Mercer's $1503 a year tuition grant. Macon College graduates, Middle Georgia College graduates, and adults age 30 and over also qualify. We also offer Financial Aid and Academic Scholarships Packages.

PLUS STATE GRANT. Area high school graduates who are residents of the State of Georgia also receive a yearly $900 grant for attending a private institution. In all, area students can attend Mercer for 35% less.

SAVE HUNDREDS MORE YEARLY. As a student living at home and commuting to Mercer, you save you and your family hundreds of dollars normally spent on long distance travel, residence hall rent, cafeteria costs, and all the other "away-to-college" expenses.

DIVERSITY WITHOUT THE CROWD. Mercer University is one of the most diversified private Universities in the Southeast. Macon Campuses: • Liberal Arts • Business and Economics • Engineering • Law • Medicine.
